

CASE STUDY

Centaur appointed preferred partner for TIG Advisors.

In early 2021 Centaur was appointed as TIG Advisors' preferred partner for fund administration. TIG Advisors turned to Centaur because of its reputation for exceptional client service and an ability to customize to their needs.

CHALLENGE

TIG Advisors pride themselves on being committed to a culture of integrity, transparency, and leadership adhering to industry best practices. They required an administrator that could deliver open and transparent reporting on a secure and reliable platform geared for seamless growth. Ultimately accurate and timely service from Centaur was vital as TIG Advisors needed a service provider that could provide local support with global reach.

TIG was attracted by Centaur's competitive fees and guarantee of local, dedicated staff to work directly with TIG Advisors' fund managers.

SOLUTION

Following extensive due diligence, TIG Advisors chose Centaur for its expertise, independence and best in class client service. Centaur consistently puts its clients first - Accountability is key to a true partnership and has become the foundation of its high touch client service model.

Centaur has exceeded expectations in its service delivery and given TIG Advisors greater bandwidth to focus on launching new funds in Q2 2021.

"Centaur's accountability and client service is renowned in the industry and we are seeing it demonstrated in practice with a local, dedicated team who are at hand whenever we need them and are proactive and act as partners, which is particularly important as we move out of the pandemic." said Michael Fastert, COO TIG Advisors.

He continues, "It quickly became clear that Centaur was the logical choice and we now consider them an extension of our team. Their reporting is both accurate and timely, based on secure technology that is scalable to grow with our firm. We are very happy with our choice of Centaur as a trusted industry partner and look forward to developing our relationship into the future."

RESULTS

- Centaur delivers more services for the same fees
- Improved performance-based metrics and more transparent reporting is being delivered to all stakeholders.
- The work by Centaur's dedicated handover team resulted in a seamless transition.
- Centaur ensures that TIG Advisors' funds remain fully compliant with all regulatory developments and reporting requirements, including AML and FATCA.
- Centaur's infrastructure and platform has been able to seamlessly process and handle a growing volume of trades.
